

Communications & Resources

What resources are available to help me promote Maven to my employees?

Maven has a robust library of employer-facing and employee-facing resources available through the Employer Resource Hub. This includes program one-pagers and flyers, email templates and communication guides, open enrollment toolkits, educational videos and recorded program overviews, and ERG and cultural moment content. Click HERE to find our full suite of materials to help you communicate about Maven to your employees.

Can Maven host a webinar or overview session for my employees?

Maven hosts live, client-agnostic Maven Overview sessions monthly. These are virtual sessions open to all Maven employer clients and their employees. You can check out the upcoming schedule HERE.

Note: Maven does not offer fully custom, client-specific webinars for individual organizations at this time.

Does Maven offer sessions in languages other than English?

Yes. We have a library of pre-recorded Maven Program Overview webinars in Spanish, French, Mandarin and Japanese. You can find the full library linked here HERE.

Can Maven attend our benefits fair or wellness event?

Maven can support benefits fairs and wellness events through digital resources, one-pagers, and more. You can use this toolkit for the most up-to-date benefits and fair guidance.

Can I use Maven's logo or brand materials for internal communications?

Yes. Maven brand assets, including logos and co-branded communication templates, are available through the Employer Resource Hub.

How can I request updated Maven materials or a refreshed one-pager?

You can use the Promoting Maven toolkit available on the Employer Resources Hub to find the latest one-pagers and communications materials.
